

An aerial photograph of a wedding reception at Camp Sunnystones. A large white event tent is set up on a green lawn. To the left of the tent, a white food truck with a colorful sign that says 'TACO TUESDAY' is parked. A crowd of guests is gathered around the tent and the food truck. In the background, there are more guests seated at tables under white umbrellas. The surrounding landscape is a mix of dry, brownish ground and lush green trees and shrubs.

CAMP SUNNYSTONES

Your wedding is a whole weekend

Fifty acres, everyone you love, and the whole place to yourselves

Welcome to Sunnystones

Fifty acres of private bushland, 45 minutes from Melbourne looking out towards the Macedon Ranges. This is the place for couples who want more than a single day, the whole property to yourselves, and everyone you love staying the weekend.

Inside you'll find our weekend packages, what's included in each, and how to take the next step.

A large outdoor wedding reception under a yellow tent. The tent is decorated with several large, woven wicker pendant lights hanging from the ceiling. The tables are set with white linens, red napkins, and glassware. The background shows a rocky landscape and other tents in the distance.

Not a day, a weekend

Most weddings are over in an afternoon. Yours isn't. Arrive Friday, celebrate Saturday, and ease into a slow Sunday with a relaxed 2pm checkout. Because everyone can stay the night, no one has to rush off, no calling Ubers, just a short walk across the grass to bed. With the whole place to yourselves, there's finally time to enjoy it all: the setup, the celebration, and the slow Sunday after. And for couples who want to stretch it further, The Long Weekend stay through to Monday morning.

The Homestead

The stone homestead is your base for the whole weekend. Somewhere to get ready, gather for meals, and wind down together at the end of each night. Wood fires inside, big windows over the property. It seats up to 100 for a reception indoors, more again for something cocktail-style.

There's room for up to 90 guests to stay in the homesteads comfortable bunk-room accommodation. Or if you have guests that love camping, we have a huge paddock with amazing views for them to pitch a tent or park their van for the weekend. It means no one needs to drive home, and breakfast the next morning is with everyone you love, all in one place.

The Lower Terrace

The lower terrace is where our couples say "I do", an open, elevated space with ample seating for your guests and sweeping views across the valley to the Macedon Ranges.

Say your vows beneath our timber arbour, or bring (or create) one of your own. Once the dancing slows, gather around the terrace's fire pit to wind down the night.

The Lawn

The lawn is the heart of the property, sitting above the lower terrace looking out toward the Macedon Ranges. This is where the celebration unfolds, with plenty of room for everyone to gather.

Set up a marquee, a tipi, a food truck, the space is yours to shape as you please. With festoon lights strung, the fire pit glowing, and dancing under the stars, it all adds up to a weekend that feels completely your own, tucked away from the world.

Cheyenne & Sid

“We got married at Camp Sunnystones in April and it couldn't have been any more perfect! The venue is awesome with stunning views, the staff were very friendly and helpful during the buildup to the wedding day, and the facilities are great. Having accommodation on-site for everyone was awesome, as it meant the wedding could go on much later than normal due to everyone staying at the venue.”

Aimee & Eamon

“From the bottom of our hearts, thank you Kim for everything you did to bring our wedding day to life. Your effort, care, and attention to detail did not go unnoticed, and truly helped everything run so smoothly - we couldn't be more grateful. We feel so lucky to have had you as part of such a special day and we will always appreciate the role you played in making it so memorable. With all our love and gratitude,”
